THE MASTERS DEGREE IN HISTORY AT SAM HOUSTON STATE UNIVERSITY

WRITTEN COMPREHENSIVE EXAM EVALUATION INSTRUMENT

After completing the necessary coursework for an MA in History, each student at SHSU must pass both a written and an oral comprehensive exam. The written exam is a three-hour test that focuses on three historical fields selected by the student. Each field is represented by a different faculty member on the student's comprehensive exam committee. Each faculty member will judge the essay(s) submitted for his or her field of the exam according to the following instrument.

Student Name
Faculty Member N	Name
Field
(A) HIGH	PASS A grade of High Pass is awarded to a student response that a skillful and polished answer to the question or questions presented and follows the guidelines vided by the faculty member;
	exercises an exceptional knowledge of the relevant historical content, including numerous specific exercises to individuals, groups, trends, or events that shaped the period or topic;
(3) demon	nestrates an outstanding understanding of the historiographical subtleties of the field, while also apparing and contrasting specific works and authors;
(4) demor	nstrates an ability to make significant and sophisticated arguments about the historical subject, while also senting those arguments in a clear, logical, and concise manner.
(B) PASS	A grade of Pass is awarded to a student response that
` '	a direct and proficient answer to the question or questions presented and follows the guidelines vided by the faculty member;
(2) demon	nstrates an adequate knowledge of the relevant historical content, including specific references to eviduals, groups, trends, or events that shaped the period or topic;
	nstrates a competent understanding of the historiographical issues in the field, while also comparing contrasting works and authors;
	nstrates an ability to make general arguments about the historical subject, while also presenting those uments in a logical manner.
(C) FAIL	A grade of Fail is given to a student response that ets to adequately address the question or questions presented or follow the guidelines provided by faculty member;
	o demonstrate graduate-level knowledge of relevant historical content, or makes no mention of individuals, groups, trends, or events that shaped the period or topic;
	o demonstrate a competent understanding of the historiographical issues in the field, or makes no tion of works and authors;
(4) is inco	oherent, poorly organized, or fraught with construction, grammar, and usage problems.
A student	who fails an area or areas is allowed one opportunity to retake the examination in the failed section(s).
Comments:	