SAX 101.X: Applied Saxophone
Fall 2007

Instructor: Mr. Seth McAdow, Lecturer of Saxophone
Office: FAB 313
Office Hours: by appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES:

The following list of study materials and alto saxophone repertoire is broken into the various levels of undergraduate, and graduate programs. This list is not comprehensive and does not restrict students from working on material that is not included in it. The study of material from outside the list, or from levels above that which the student is currently enrolled should be done only at the request or with the consent of the instructor.

Students will receive one lesson per week, which will include assignments in each of the following categories:

- 1. SCALES
- 2. METHODS and ETUDES: technical and interpretive
- 3. REPERTOIRE
  - A. Sonatas
    1. early sonatas (transcribed)
    2. original sonatas
  - B. Concerti
  - C. Solo literature
    1. saxophone with piano
    2. unaccompanied
  - D. Chamber Ensembles

EVALUATION:

Students will receive a grade on each lesson based on how well they prepared the assigned material. These weekly grades will be averaged at the end of the semester and the result will account for 1/4 of the final grade. A midterm and final exam will be given over technical materials studied. These grades will be averaged at the end of the semester and will account for 1/4. The other 1/2 of the final grade will be derived from the grade average earned in the jury exam at the conclusion of the semester. In addition, students must attend all saxophone masterclasses and saxophone related performances. Jury exams will be performed by each student at the conclusion of each semester. These should be done with piano accompaniment (when applicable). It is the student's responsibility to secure an accompanist, and this should be done as soon as possible at the beginning of each semester. In addition to the jury, all music majors must perform in a solo context at least once every semester, beginning with the second semester of the freshman year.

ATTENDANCE:

Lessons may be made-up only under the following conditions:

1. lessons missed by the instructor due to illness or conflict.
2. lessons missed by the student due to university activities
3. lessons missed by the student due to illness or unpreparedness where notification is given by the student at least one day prior to the scheduled lesson

Unexcused absences will result in an "F" being applied for the weekly grade. Absences totaling more than 25% of the scheduled lesson times will automatically result in the student failing the course for the semester.
