RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS POLICY:

Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). This request must be made in the first fifteen days of the semester or the first seven days of a summer session in which the absence(s) will occur. The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable time frame in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed.

HANDICAPPED STUDENT POLICY:

It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that no otherwise qualified disabled individual shall, solely by reason of his/her handicap, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any academic, Student Life program, or activity. Handicapped students may request academic assistance when needed from a Committee for Continuing Academic Assistance for Disabled Students by visiting the Director of the Counseling Center in the Lee Drain Building Annex, or by calling ext. 1720.

CLASS & ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Attendance in this class is expected as is stated in the latest Sam Houston State University catalog. Those who miss a substantial number of classes will penalize themselves by missing material that will be discussed in class, that may not appear in the texts, and over which the class will be tested. Please come in if you are late and be seated quietly. If a student is consistently late, consistently late means greater than 3 times late, each late arrival in excess of 3 will be considered an absence. Absence in excess of 10 hours will result in the grade F for the semester. Students leaving class early without prior approval will be marked absent. Failure to be in class is an absence, there is no excused absence. Students who must be absent may receive attendance credit for that day by attending another session of the class that day, and notifying the instructor of their presence. However, extra credit, if given, may not be made up.

Any examination missed because of an absence must be made up at the end of the semester when one (1) comprehensive make-up examination will be given to all students who missed examinations. If more than one (1) exam was missed, the make-up will count for each of the missed exams -- that is, if one (1) exam is missed the make-up will count once, if two (2) exams are missed the exam will count twice, etc.

Students are considered to be learning how to become a part of the business community and are expected to dress and act accordingly. No hats are to be worn in the class room. University policy prohibits Food & drink in Classrooms and will be enforced. There is adequate time between classes to take care of personal hygiene, eating snacks, or getting something to drink. Do not leave the classroom during class except for an emergency.
