DESCRIPTION OF COURSE:

A class for students who have completed Spanish 141, 142, and 263 at SHSU, who have completed equivalent courses at other institutions or have taken the CLEP and placed out of those courses. This is the final course for the foreign language requirement for some degree plans. Students should demonstrate intermediate or higher levels of pronunciation, vocabulary and language codes stressing oral ability, reading ability, and writing ability. Special emphases on reading, writing, and speaking. Prerequisites: having passed 141, 142, and 263 with an average of C or better, or placement by testing

STYLE

This course has two delivery methods: an on-line BLACKBOARD for information outside class meetings and a SEMINAR-STYLE, student-centered, format in class meetings with a minimum of professor lecture. Spanish will be the preferred language in both in the majority of cases but code-switching may be practiced only when necessary. Since language is a social skill and activity, this is the only way to learn effectively . Be prepared to ask questions and receive answers in Spanish. Do not expect other students to translate for you. In either language, mistakes are natural--tolerance and assistance are the watchwords. Be flexible--think of another way to send the same message if you get "stuck."

GENERAL GOALS (Optimal results)

1. increased AWARENESS of and APPRECIATION for Hispanic language and culture

2. at least intermediate level VOCABULARY in Spanish, with emphasis on vocabulary for the world of work in the students' areas of study and the ability make educated guesses about unknown words based on context as well as to identify unknown cognates

3. ability to CONJUGATE regular, stem-changing, and irregular verbs in present indicative, present progressive, present and imperfect subjunctive, preterite, imperfect, conditional, present perfect and the other compound tenses

4. ability to carry on at least intermediate level CONVERSATIONS related to visiting/living in a Spanish-speaking country, e.g., arrange and execute transportation, accommodations, meals, etc.

5. ability to carry on at least intermediate level SOCIAL CONVERSATIONS, adapting to unexpected questions or responses

6. ability to READ newspapers, magazines, and excerpts from books and report on what has been read at intermediate level or better both orally and in writing

7. ability to WRITE at least a paragraph in response to a question in Spanish with minimal errors in syntax and appropriate word choices.

8. ability to WRITE an essay of 300 words or more on a topic for which the student has prepared. [short autobiographical sketch, description of a room or a person, etc.]

COURSE OBJECTIVES (Optimal activities)

1. To LISTEN to and comprehend at an intermediate or higher level examples of standard Spanish spoken at average native speed

2. To SPEAK without notes (and read aloud) at an intermediate or higher level examples of standard Spanish with few enough pronunciation errors (speed secondary) to be comprehended by a native speaker

3. To READ and comprehend at an intermediate or higher level examples of standard Spanish by concentrating on major words known (with the help of cognates) and by making educated guesses at the rest. With the further help of a dictionary, to be able to comprehend a high percentage of standard Spanish

4. To WRITE at an intermediate or higher level in standard Spanish with few enough grammar errors to be comprehended by a native speaker

YOUR ENROLLMENT IN THIS CLASS CONSTITUTES YOUR LEGAL AND MORAL OBLIGATION TO BE HONEST. Because this course is a listening, speaking, reading, and writing one, I encourage you to work together. HOWEVER, plagiarism--copying others' work with out crediting them for it--is legally and ethically unacceptable--AND GROUNDS FOR FAILURE, NOT JUST IN THE ASSIGNMENT, BUT IN THE CLASS. Paraphrases, as well as quotes, must be documented. See the article, Plagiarism, posted in documents in Blackboard.

PHILOSOPHY

This is an UNIVERSITY-LEVEL ACADEMIC COURSE WITH APPROPRIATE ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS. You earn your grade on that basis. You do not receive university credit for "gender and/or ethnic consciousness" or language ability per se. Academic credit is based upon your intellectual and academic efforts, willingness and ability to reflect upon and respond to requirements of the class.

INTERACTION

RESPECT FOR OTHERS' VIEWS AND SPACE, not necessarily in agreement with one's own, is required on the part of every participant, including what is expressed, shared, etc., in the course of class interaction.

CELL PHONES & PAGERS

Please refer to Section 5.2.22 of the Code of Conduct.

CELL PHONES AND PAGERS must be on vibrate during class time except in pre-arranged-with-the-professor possibility of medical emergency to avoid grade sanctions. Cell phones should be silent and invisible. Leaving the room to respond to cell phones during a class will not be tolerated. Being tardy because of cell phones will not be tolerated or excused.

GENERAL STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL MATERIAL, in books, presented in class, etc., whether you are listening or not.

YOU ARE PERSONALLY & SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR ACTIVITIES (ASKING QUESTIONS OR DOING HOMEWORK) IN ORDER TO MEET YOUR PERSONAL EXPECTATIONS AND DESIRE FOR SUCCESS/GRADE. Probable daily time needed for homework outside class will be a minimum of one to two hours per hour spent in class (3-6 hours per week). "Homework" is largely left to your discretion--you must assess how well you understand and how much practice, reading or written work outside of class you need. You are responsible for anything and everything in the syllabus, book or said in class. You are expected to highlight reading and take notes in class. You are expected to keep in contact with the professor and other students as personally needed.

All papers must include a heading in this format:

(sample) I will not grade a paper that lacks the proper heading.

Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance are expected to visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center. The students should then make arrangements with their individual instructors so that appropriate strategies can be considered and helpful procedures can be developed to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If a student has a disability that may affect adversely his/her work in this class, then the student is encouraged to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with the instructor about how best to deal with the situation.
