Textbook/Readings: Multicultural Education in a Pluralistic Society (Seventh Edition) by Donna M. Gollnick and Philip C. Chinn. Pearson Merrill Prentice Hall Publishers
 ISBN: 0-13-119719-3

Course Description: This course builds and expands prior professional knowledge, preparation, and experience fostering astute awareness, knowledge, and skills so that individuals may interact in learning environments with learners whose cultural background may differ from their own. Major emphasis will be placed on the influence of culture, importance of understanding our own cultural backgrounds and experiences, and the microcultures of class, ethnicity, race, gender, age, and language on education. The course develops knowledge on issues impacting the public schools and society in the area of diversity to help understand intellectual, social, physical, and emotional developmental characteristics of persons in different age, language, culture, race, social class, and educational areas. It also provides an overview on the diversity and richness of our multicultural nation and how the differences expand rather than limit one's education. Prerequisite: sophomore standing. Credit 3 course

Course Requirements/Graded Assignments:

FORMAT FOR COURSE DOCUMENTS: All assignments outside of class must be computer-generated, double-spaced, use a 10-12 point Arial or Times New Roman font, and proofread to be error free. Major WRITTEN assignments (marked with *) such as the research paper, cultural interview, and others are expected to have an appropriately titled cover page. COVER PAGE will include: title of document; student's name; prepared for: (professor's name); course name, number and section; date paper was prepared; and any other important information.

- 1. Diversity Study/Research paper – Develop a deeper understanding of a local community/country in terms of resources available that support as well as hinder the goals and objectives of multicultural education. Follow guidelines provided on Blackboard. You will write a 4-6 page paper and present your findings to the class. Presentation should be a summary of your written paper and no more than 10 minutes per group. Points will be taken off for “reading” your presentation to the class. Paper (100 points). Presentation (100 points). Attach Report Rubric to the FRONT of your paper and present the Presentation Rubrics with your name and name of your geographic area at the time of presentation. (Total of 200 points)
- 2. Cultural Interview: Interview someone from a different cultural or ethnic group. Interview will begin with section describing (giving a background personal profile of) the interviewee and why this person is considered someone from a different culture than you as the interviewer. The interview will have a conclusion explaining what you learned from the interview. Sample interview questions are included in the guidelines for the Cultural Interview on Blackboard. Format your questions and answers like you have seen interviews written in magazines, newspapers or other publications. On a separate sheet of paper, write a summary of your interview that you will present to your group members. Attach rubric to front of paper. (Total of 100 points)
- 3. Chapter Summary/Reflective Journals: Guidelines for writing chapter summaries and reflective journals are on Blackboard. You will be writing a journal for five chapters (of your choice) in the book. Chapters one (1) and nine (9) do NOT require journals. Journals must be handed in at the time the chapter is presented. Points will not be awarded for late journals. Rubric is NOT necessary unless points are taken off. In that case the professor will provide the rubric and explanation (10 points per journal.) (Total of 50 points for required chapters)
- 4. Video Questions – You will be watching several videos in class or as an assignment outside of class. Some of the videos are on the DVD supplied with our text, and others are in addition to the DVD. You will be required to answer questions for at least 10 videos that will be assigned, and handed in at the appropriate time (5 points each -- Total 50 points).
- 5. Online assignment (discussions/forum) – Two weeks during the semester you will be asked to go online and complete an assignment. They will be handed in with the “self-evaluation” twice during the semester. Each collection will be worth 25 points. (Total of 50 points)
- 7. Self-Evaluation. A self-evaluation will be required twice during the semester. You will be required to write at least a one-page written self-assessment (1) discussing connections you are making, (2) identifying the work you feel is your best effort so far in the course, (3) how you feel your thinking has changed or evolved over time, and (4) what you feel has been your most important contribution to class. Twenty-five (25) points per evaluation. (Total of 50 points).
- 8. Tests and Essays: Three or more tests/quizzes which may include essay questions will be administered during the semester. No make-up quizzes will be administered. (Total of 100 points)

Attendance for BSL236: Punctual and regular attendance is expected. A student may be penalized (one full grade) for more than three hours of absence. Two tardies and /or early departures are equivalent to one hour of absence. In case of an emergency, please contact the professor. Students MUST be present to receive credit for in class assignments.

Expectations: Please pay special attention to observe the due dates for each of the assignments. If you are aware of problems or special situations BEFORE the due dates, contact the professor for special arrangements. If your work is submitted later than the day specified, the following points are deducted from the assignment:

1. Up to 24 hours-5% of the total assessed points are deducted.
2. 25-72 hours-10% of the total assessed points are deducted.
3. By the next class meeting 15% of the total points assessed are deducted.
4. Any other late assignment may not be accepted (each case is handled separately).

Americans with Disability Act:

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may adversely affect your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with me about how I can best help you. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: no accommodation can be made until you register with the Counseling Center.

Student Absences on Religious Holy Days Policy:

Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). This request must be made in the first fifteen days of class of the semester or the first seven days of a summer session in which the absence(s) will occur. The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed.
