

Barbara L. Goodwin
Lecturer, Adjunct
Curriculum and Instruction
College of Education

Degrees Earned

Bachelor of Arts, Elementary Education; Howard Payne University, 1961
Master of Education, Counseling; Stephen F. Austin University, 1973
Post Graduate, Special Education Counseling; East Texas State University, 1975
Post Graduate, Educational Leadership; Sam Houston State University, 1981 - 1982

Professional Licensure and Certifications

Professional Mid-Management
Professional Educational Special Education Counselor
Professional Counselor
Provisional Elementary - General

Peer-Review Publications and Artistic Performances/Exhibitions

Articles

none

Books

none

Chapters

none

Proceedings

Funded External Grants

None at the college level – Several funded grants while employed in the public school.

Peer-Review Presentations/Posters

none

Work or Professional Experiences

Numerous professional presentations

Mid-Winter Administrators Conference – Austin, 1992; “How to Bring Change to Reading Curriculum

Sheldon Elementary School – “Developing a Literature-Based Reading Curriculum”

Royal Wood Elementary School – “Developing a Literature-Based Reading Curriculum”

Lake Travis ISD – “Developing a Literature-Based Reading Curriculum”

Pearland ISD – “Communicating With Parents – An Alternative Grading System”

Glenrose ISD – “The Reading/Writing Connection”

Region 20 Education Service Center – “A Portfolio-Based Writing Curriculum for Gifted Students”

Sam Houston State University Agriculture Department Summer Workshop – “Serving the Special Needs Student in the Agriculture Classroom”
Princeton, New Jersey – “Teaching Math in a Heterogeneous Classroom”
Princeton, New Jersey – “The Reading/Writing Connection”

Honors and Awards

Other Competencies