

Janice Hanson Aragon

Clinical Faculty – University Supervisor (Student Teachers)
Department – Curriculum and Instruction/Language, Literacy,
And Special Populations
College – Education

Degrees Earned

Bachelor of Arts in Social Science from Centenary College,
Shreveport, Louisiana in May 1956
Master of Education from Sam Houston State University,
Huntsville, Texas in August of 1972

Professional Licensure and Certifications

Composite Teaching Certification in Social Sciences
Teaching Certification in English/Language Arts
Administrative Certification

Peer Review Publications

Served on a committee of classroom teachers to provide activities and input for a sociology textbook in 1975

Work or Professional Experiences

1957 – 1965 – Taught Language Arts at Arnold Junior High in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD
1967 - 1976 – Taught Social Sciences and served as Social Studies department chair at Cy-Fair High School in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD
1976 –1981–Served as Assistant Principal of Cypress Fairbanks High School
1981- 1982 – Served as Associate Principal of Cypress Fairbanks High School
1982 – 1986 – Served as Principal of Dean Junior High School in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD (first female secondary school principal in the district)
1986 – 1989 – Opened a new campus, Cook Junior High School in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD
1989 – 1996 –Served as Principal of Cypress Creek High School in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD

1996- 2008 – Worked as a supervisor of student teachers for Stephen F. Austin University and Sam Houston State University

Honors and Awards

Elected as an officer in Texas Association of Secondary School Principals and served as President in 1995- 1996

Selected for the Wall of Fame in the Cypress-Fairbanks school district because of her state leadership roles

In 2001 the Jan Hanson Aragon Middle School was dedicated in the Cypress-Fairbanks district.

Other Competencies

Was a minister's wife for 38 years, mother of two sons and grandmother of five

Volunteers with Houston Hospice as leader of bereavement support groups

Elected to several terms as president of the Old Bridge Lake homeowners' association