Professor, Sam Houston State University (2005 - Present).

Associate Professor, Sam Houston State University (1994 - 2005).

Assistant Professor, Sam Houston State University (1988 - 1994).

Instructor, Louisiana Tech University (1986 - 1988).

Teaching Assistant, Louisiana Tech University (1984 - 1986).

Manager of Training, Marlin Drilling Company, Inc. - a Tenneco Company (1982 - 1984). Reporting to the CEO, I designed, established and managed the training programs at the new $1 million plus Marlin Training Center while responsible for an annual operating budget of more than $500,000 for a company with over 1,000 employees. Taught courses in management and supervision to front line supervisors and middle managers; taught orientation and safety. I planned, scheduled, directed, and coordinated all drilling, maintenance, supervision, and safety training. The Marlin Training Center achieved all established human resource development objectives 12% below the allocated annual budget.

Senior Training Coordinator, Brown & Root, Inc. - a Halliburton Company (1979 - 1982). Reporting to the Senior Project Manager, I both established and managed all the training programs at Brown & Root's Chevron Residuum Expansion Project in Mississippi. This $1.5+ billion petrochemical construction project set the national and world's record in safety by working 9,421,329 safe man-hours without a lost time accident. I planned and directed all the craft, skills, technical, vocational, and safety training for this 5,500+ employee project. I taught supervision and management courses and conducted the daily three (3) hour new employees orientation. Additionally, I planned and managed B&R petrochemical maintenance training.
