Purpose

This guide is intended to help SHSU students, faculty, and staff understand the library's Engine Orange search engine. The explanations and video tutorials found here answer three key questions:

1. What is Engine Orange?
2. How do I use Engine Orange?
3. How will Engine Orange help me?

Engine Orange, SHSU's Library Search Engine
