- Be positive and constructive in discussions.
- Respond in a thoughtful and timely manner.

LIBRARY

The Newton Gresham Library is available to all students.

Expectations:

- 1. Students with Disabilities: It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the university. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities may request help with academically related problems stemming from individual disabilities from their instructors, school/department chair or by contacting the Chair of the Committee for Continuing Assistance for Disabled Students and Director of the Counseling Center, Lee Drain Annex, or by calling (936) 294-1720.
- 2. Late Work: All course work is due on the date specified. Late work will not be accepted or awarded credit, unless the student and the professor have made an agreement regarding an unusual circumstance.

3. Course Requirements: The professor(s) reserves the right to alter course requirements and/or the class schedule to better address the learning needs of the students.
4. Academic Honesty: Academic honesty is expected. Plagiarism is a violation and will result in course failure. A report will be made to Dr. Beverly Irby, Department Chair and Dr. Genevieve Brown, Dean.
5. Student Conduct: Graduate students are governed by the SHSU's policies related to student conduct. Any student with questions about grievances, ethical behavior, etc., should review the SHSU Graduate Catalog and the Texas State University System Rules and Regulations, Chapter VI, Student Services and Activities, Section 5 Student Conduct and Discipline. Those rules may be found at http://www.tsus.edu/pubs/Pubs/rules_regs.html. Particular attention should be paid to the sections on plagiarism and theft of library materials. Students should practice self-discipline in classes. Courtesy should be extended to all students. Thought should be given to the value of all conversation in class to all students in class. Classes will be more enjoyable and beneficial to all involved if graduate students conduct themselves as conscientious professionals.
6. Course Concerns: Please see the professor if there are any concerns before consulting the department chair or other program administrator.
7. TK20 Information: The College uses the Campus Tools Higher Ed. Assessment and Management System to conduct systematic teaching and assessments for all students in the college. Every new student to the program beginning fall 2007 is required to purchase an account for use of this system from Tk20. Each student account costs only $100, plus tax and includes access to the system for seven years. This is a ONE-TIME charge. To purchase your account, click on the link on the login page of the Campus Tools Higher Ed. System, found at <https://tk20.shsu.edu/campustoolshighered/>
8. TEExES Information (educational leadership masters students only): Students will need to take a practice exam before receiving approval to take the state exam. After students have completed 12-15 hours (ideally are enrolled in School Law), students should sign up for the practice exam through the SHSU College of Education TEXES/certification office. The exam is offered on select Saturdays in Huntsville.
http://www.shsu.edu/~edu_www/certification/index.php

An online version of the practice exam is available, contact jcombs@shsu.edu

After scores are received from the certification office, students will be given permission to sign up and pay for the TEExES exam. The exam is offered 6 times a year (Feb, April, June, Aug, Oct, Dec) & advanced registration required.

At least one TEExES review session will be offered per semester. Registration is required, contact jcombs@shsu.edu

Students are responsible for preparing for the exam. Professors will be given TExES practice questions to review in courses. Study the free guide available at http://www.texas.ets.org/assets/pdf/testprep_manuals/068_principal_55017_web.pdf

If students fail the TExES exam, they will contact department representative Dr. Julie Combs (jcombs@shsu.edu) before signing up for another exam.

Our desire is that students will have passed the exam before graduation or within 6 months after graduation

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Qualified students with disabilities will be provided reasonable and necessary academic accommodations if determined eligible by the appropriate disability services staff at their home institution. Prior to granting disability accommodations in this course, the instructor must receive written verification of a student's eligibility for specific accommodations from the disability services staff at the home institution. It is the student's responsibility to initiate contact with their home institution's disability services staff and to follow the established procedures for having the accommodation notice sent to the instructor.

SYLLABUS CHANGES

The instructor reserves the right to make changes as necessary to this syllabus. If changes are necessitated during the term of the course, the instructor will immediately notify students of such changes both by individual email communication and posting both notification and nature of change(s) on the course bulletin board.
