

RUBRIC FOR TWENTY MINUTE PRESENTATION

(POWER POINT)

Level 5 – Mastery of Power Point in producing this slide set will be indicated by the following. The set should have more than the assigned ten slides excluding the title slide and the summary slide. The title slide should clearly and imaginatively communicate the purpose of the presentation and the summary slide should clearly summarize the presentation. The entire set should be artistically sound with good color, proportion, texture, emphasis and spacing. The content of each slide should emphasize the main points of the presentation rather than narrating it. Each slide will be illustrated.

Level 4 – An understanding of Power Point but less than skillful production will be indicated by the following. There will be the minimum of ten slides, excluding the title and summary slides. The title slide may not point out the purpose of the presentation distinctly, but will refer to it. The summary slide will summarize too briefly. There will be less attention to artistic factors especially emphasis, proportion and spacing. The content of each slide should emphasize the main points of the presentation rather than narrating it. Some slides may be illustrated and some may not be.

Level 3 – A mediocre understanding of Power Point will be indicated by the following. There will be the minimum of ten slides, excluding the title slide and summary slide. The title slide will have a title, but it may not refer directly to the purpose of the presentation. There will be a summary slide but it will be very brief. The artistic factors will indicate a less than perfect understanding of these, and there will be few illustrations. The content of the slides will be more like narrative.

Level 2 – A less than mediocre understanding of Power Point will be indicated by the following. There will be less than the minimum of ten slides and there will not be either or both of a title and summary slide. The title slide will be brief and not very illustrative of the presentation purpose. The summary slide will be very brief and not necessarily summarize. Artistic effects will be haphazard and there will be few illustrations. The content of the slides may not relate well to the content of the presentation.

Level 1- A Power Point slide set that fails to meet the criteria will be indicated by the following. There will be less than ten slides. There may be very few slides. There will not be a title or summary slide. Artistic effects will be very haphazard and there will be no illustrations. The content of the slides will not relate well to the presentation.
