COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A continuation of financial accounting topics followed by an introduction to managerial accounting. Topics include corporate accounting issues, bonds, statement of cash flows, financial statement analysis, job costing, cost behavior, cost-volume-profit analysis, budgeting, performance evaluation, product pricing and capital budgeting. Emphasis is placed on the usage of accounting information in managerial decision making.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

It is the objective of this course that the student will have a strong foundation for future courses in business administration by:

1. Understanding of the role and scope of financial and managerial accounting and the use of accounting information in the decision making processes of managers,
2. Understanding various terms and concepts and their appropriate uses including the idea of using different costs for different purposes,
3. Obtaining a level of proficiency in various calculations that are routinely used in managerial accounting such as product cost determination, C-V-P analysis, and budgeting.
4. Becoming aware of the behavioral implications of financial and managerial accounting in virtually all aspects of business activity.

COURSE EVALUATION PROCESS:

The course grade will depend on the student's performance on exams and quizzes as follows:

4 Unit Exams and Final Exam	400 points
Homework	50
Quizzes	50
Total points possible	500 points

Letter grades will be assigned based on the percentage of points earned as follows:
 90% = A, 80% = B, 70% = C, 60% = D, and less than 60% = F.

No make-ups will be given on exams or quizzes. Students who miss an exam will receive a zero for the exam. The lowest exam grade (including the final exam) will be dropped. The five highest quiz grades will count. More than five will be given.

RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS:

Students are allowed to miss class and other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Students remain responsible for all work. See Student Syllabus Guidelines at <http://www.shsu.edu/syllabus/>.

DISABLED STUDENTS POLICY:

It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the university. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance should visit with the Office of Services for Students with disabilities located in the Counseling Center. See Student Syllabus Guidelines at <http://www.shsu.edu/syllabus/>

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Class attendance will be recorded at each meeting. Regular attendance will indicate the amount of interest and effort a student is willing to exert in learning.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY:

Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of cheating on any exam or quiz may be given a "0" on the exam or quiz or an "F" in the course at my discretion.

OTHER:HOMEWORK:

All homework assigned on the class schedule is to be completed at myaccountinglab.com. The assignment due dates are listed on the schedule and are due at 11.59 P.M. The required 50 points for homework are listed in the course evaluation section, but the total points that could be earned are 55 (5 point bonus). No homework will be accepted late or in hard copy format.

CLASSROOM DEMEANOR:

Demeanor refers to a way of conducting oneself. The demeanor in this classroom should be that of professionalism and common courtesy. Cell phones should be turned off. Students should arrive to class on time and stay until the class is dismissed. Excessive tardiness disrupts the class and shows a lack of respect to both the instructor and the other students. Do not leave the classroom during an exam without permission. Otherwise, it will be assumed that you are finished with the exam. Disruptive behavior of any kind will not be tolerated. Eating and drinking (except for bottled water) is not allowed in the classrooms.
