Required Readings

Criminal Laws of Texas (TDCAA) 2007-2009

Course Description

A course in the substantive criminal law which includes definitions of law, definitions of crime, general principles of criminal responsibility, elements of major crimes, punishments and conditions or circumstances which may excuse someone from criminal responsibility or mitigate punishment. Particular emphasis is on the penal laws of the State of Texas.

Course Objectives

The primary objectives of this course are:

1. Acquaint the student with the basic principles that underlie the American system of law.
2. Acquaint the student with the elements of the primary state criminal offenses as defined by the Texas Penal Code.
3. Acquaint the student with defenses and other mitigation of criminal responsibility and/or punishment.

Course Requirements

Exams – there will be 4 exams. Each will be worth 100 points. Each exam will include additional 5 bonus points from subjects mentioned in the lecture.

Grading Policy

Exam 1	100 points
Exam 2	100 points
Exam 3	100 points

Makeup Exam Policy

At the discretion of the professor, students who have documentation for a justified absence or illness of the student will be allowed to take a makeup exam one week from the original test date.

Attendance & Class Participation

Class attendance requirements will be followed in accordance with Academic Policy Statement 800401. It is expected that students will attend EACH class session, complete reading assignments and contribute to class discussions. Throughout the course of the semester, a student is allowed a maximum of six unexcused absences. Students missing more than six unexcused absences will have their final grade lowered 10 points for each unexcused absence after the 6th unexcused absence. It is the responsibility of the student to sign the roll sheet. Failure to sign the roll sheet will be considered as an absence. Falsely signing the roll sheet will be an automatic failure of the course.

Class Behavior

All cell phones will be turned off. No text messaging will be allowed. Talking amongst each other, reading a newspaper or eating will not be tolerated. You may be excused from the class for any of the above disruptions.

Students in this class will be challenged to welcome and embrace diversity of opinion. Personal attacks against another's belief system will not be tolerated. They will be identified as such by the professor (or any other class participant who senses that discussions have moved to a personal level) and stopped. Students who continue to engage in personal level challenges will first be counseled by the professor; but may ultimately be dropped from the class.
