DESCRIPTION OF COURSE:

Spanish 264 is a continuation of Spanish 263 with special emphasis on practical needs for conversation. It will include more practice in reading and composition. Spanish 264 is designed to further expand the student's proficiency in the four basic language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The prerequisite for enrolling in SPN 264 is the completion of SPN 263 with a grade of C or higher or appropriate scores on the CLEP or AP examinations. The prerequisite for enrolling in upper-division Spanish courses is the completion of SPN 264 with a grade of C or higher or appropriate scores on the CLEP or AP examinations. However, if a graduating senior makes a D in Spanish 264, it will be accepted for graduation purposes.

STYLE

This course has two delivery methods: an on-line BLACKBOARD for information outside class meetings and a DISCUSSION STUDENT-CENTERED format in class meetings with a minimum of professor lecture. Since language is a social skill and activity, this is the only way to effectively learn. In speaking, mistakes are natural--tolerance and assistance are important. Be flexible--think of another way to send the same message if you have difficulty expressing yourself.

GENERAL GOALS

1. increased AWARENESS of and APPRECIATION for Hispanic language and culture
2. additional VOCABULARY in Spanish to express your ideas
3. ability to CONJUGATE verbs so that a native speaker can understand the sentence
4. ability to CONVERSE about work, diversions, travel, the arts, family life, news, and television
5. learn to ADAPT to unexpected questions or responses

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. To LISTEN to and comprehend standard Spanish spoken at average native speed
2. To SPEAK without notes (or read aloud) standard Spanish with few enough pronunciation errors to be comprehended by a native speaker

Span 264.

YOUR ENROLLMENT IN THIS CLASS CONSTITUTES YOUR LEGAL AND MORAL OBLIGATION TO THE HONOR CODE. Because this course is a listening, speaking, reading, and writing one, I encourage you to work together. HOWEVER, plagiarism--copying others' work with out crediting them for it--is legally and ethically unacceptable--AND GROUNDS FOR FAILURE, NOT JUST IN THE ASSIGNMENT, BUT IN THE CLASS. Paraphrases, as well as quotes, must be documented. See the article, Plagiarism in the course documents.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the University. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance are expected to visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center. The students should then make arrangements with their individual instructors so that appropriate strategies can be considered and helpful procedures can be developed to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If a student has a disability that may affect adversely his/her work in this class, then the student is encouraged to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with the instructor about how best to deal with the situation. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: No accommodation can be made until the student registers with the counseling Center.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

“Religious holy day” means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20, Tax Code.

VISITORS IN THE CLASSROOM

Unannounced visitors to class must present a current official SHSU identification card to be permitted into the classroom. They must not present a disruption to the class by their attendance. If the visitor is not a registered student, it is at the instructor’s discretion whether or not the visitor will be allowed to remain in the classroom.

This policy is not intended to discourage the occasional visiting of classes by responsible persons. Obviously, however, the visiting of a particular class should be occasional and not regular, and it should in no way constitute interference with registered members of the class or the educational process.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

ATTENDANCE IS REQUIRED. According to the student code, a student may be absent for 3 hours (1 ½ classes) without penalty. If you are absent without making arrangements, with justification, before or during the absence, with the professor, your participation grade will be lowered at least 10% per occurrence.

DEADLINES

Syllabus assignments will be performed or handed in at the corresponding class. Daily grades will be assigned at the professor's discretion. In case of serious illness or death in the family, advance or concurrent notice of your absence is required. Call or email and leave a message and, if possible, send your corresponding assignment with another student.
