COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A study of the basic accounting concepts and procedures underlying the organization and reporting of financial information. Topics include the accounting cycle, the preparation of financial statements, measurement and reporting of business income, and valuation and presentation of assets and liabilities. Emphasis is placed on the relevance of financial information generated by the accounting process and how it is used in decision making.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this course students will have learned: (to):

- (1) basic terminology, procedures and techniques used in identifying, organizing and reporting accounting information for business entities;
- (2) fundamental principles and concepts underlying the valuation and disclosure of financial statement accounts;
- (3) a basic understanding of the economic information contained in company financial statements and what that information communicates about the business;
- (4) to recognize accounting information as essential to business decision-making.

COURSE EVALUATION PROCESS:

An individual student's course grade will depend on performance as follows:

3 Exams	300 points
1 Final Exam (required to complete the course)	100 points
11 Homeworks (lowest grade will be dropped)	100 points
11 Quizzes (lowest quiz grade will be dropped)	100 points
Total points possible	600 points

Letter grades will be assigned based on the percentage of points earned as follows:

90% = A, 80% = B, 70% = C, 60% = D, less than 60% = F

No Make-ups will be given on exams. Students who miss an exam will receive a zero for that exam. The final exam must be taken to complete the course. A picture ID is required to sit for all exams. Homework and Quizzes are to be completed online by the due dates noted on the class schedule. Eleven chapters will be assigned but the lowest Homework grade and the lowest Quiz grade will be dropped.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Attendance is EXPECTED and will be recorded at each class session – this is NOT an online course. Regular attendance indicates the interest and effort a student is willing to exert in learning. Ten (10) bonus points will be added to the final exam grade for perfect attendance (0 absences). There will be no exceptions or excused absences allowed for bonus points.

CLASSROOM RULES OF CONDUCT:

Students are expected to help maintain a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. Students are to treat faculty and students with respect. Students are to turn off all cell phones while in the classroom. Under no circumstances are cell phones or any electronic devices to be used or seen during times of examination. Students may tape-record lectures provided they do not disturb other students in the process. No food or drink is allowed in the classroom.

RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS:

Students are allowed to miss class and other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to me a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s); I will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed. Students remain responsible for all work.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the University. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance should visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY:

Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of cheating on any exam or quiz will be given a grade of "0" for that exercise.

VISITORS IN THE CLASSROOM:

Only registered students may attend class. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar's Office.
