

Name: John Little
Title: Lecturer
Department: Agricultural and Industrial Sciences
College: Arts and Sciences

Degrees Earned

Educational Specialist Degree in Industrial Technology, University of Missouri-Columbia,
Secondary Support Areas: Agricultural Mechanization and Educational Computing.

M.A., Industrial Education, Agricultural Mechanization minor, Sam Houston State University, 1980

B.S., Industrial Education, Mathematics minor, Sam Houston State University, 1977

Work or Professional Experiences

2001-Current Self-employed, Property Farm and Management; Huntsville, TX

1999-2001 Chief Engineer, Bentwater Country Club; Montgomery, TX

Jan. 1997-1999 Shop Manager, Holly Water Well; Huntsville, TX

1995-Dec. 1996 Assistant Manager/Programmer; Wilcox Enterprises; West Monroe, LA

1993-1995 Associate Dean- Technical and Industrial Division, Phillips County Community College;
Helena, AR

1992-1993 Plant Engineering Technology Instructor, Texas State Technical College; Marshall, TX

1981-1992 Agricultural Engineering/Mechanization Instructor Automotive Science Instructor,
Northeast Louisiana University; Monroe, LA

1980-1981 (part-time) Maintenance Technician and Security Guard, Huntsville Memorial Hospital;
Huntsville, TX

1978-1979 Pipeline Inspector, Trinity River Authority; Huntsville, TX

1977-1978 Surveying Party Chief, Harris Engineering; Huntsville, TX

Other Competencies

John Deere Training Seminar, 1994, Phoenix, AR

Ground Source Heat Exchange Clinic, International Ground Source Heat Pump Association, June 1992, Stillwater, OK.

Environmental Chemicals and Solvents Disposal Clinic, Safety Kleen, 1989, Jackson, MS.

Aeroquip Training School (Hydraulics), 1987, Jackson, MI

John Deere Training Seminar, 1984, Memphis, TN. And Wichita, KS.