

Edwin S. Davis
Adjunct Professor
College of Criminal Justice
Sam Houston State University

Degrees Earned

Ph.D. Political Science, Texas Tech University, 1972
M.A. Public Administration, University of North Texas, 1964
B.A. Political Science and History, University of North Texas, 1962

Professional Licensure

Victim-Offender Mediator, State of Texas, Department of Criminal Justice
Family and General Law Mediator, Texas

Peer-Reviewed Publications

Lynch, S.A., Swicegood, P.R., Price, D.P., & Davis, E.S. (2006). Examining the school experiences of youthful offenders: Where were the positive academic and behavioral supports? The Journal of At-Risk Issues, 12(1), 27-34.

Books

Public Policy Primer. 3rd ed. Simon and Schuster, 2000 and previous two editions.
Public Policy: The Basics. 3rd ed. Edsal Publishing, 2007, and the previous two editions.
Texas Politics Today. 13th ed. Thompson Publishing, 2007, and the previous six editions.

Funded External Grants

Two Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library Research Grants.
U.S. Air Force TRIES Grant to prepare an integrated natural resource management plan for Offett Air Force Base, 1997. $50,000.

Work or Professional Experiences

Coordinator of Restorative Justice, Episcopal Diocese of Texas, 2001-present.
Chairman of the Board, Restorative Justice Ministries Network of Texas, 2008-
Editor, Texas Journal of Political Studies, twenty years.
Professor of Political Science, Sam Houston State University, 1966-2005.
Pre-Law Advisor, Sam Houston State University, 1973-2005.

Honors and Awards

Star of Texas Award (citizen of the year), Common Cause of Texas, 1991.