

J. James Johnson (Guitar) has been an SHSU faculty member since 1991. He also maintains a private studio in Huntsville, Texas. He was the first Registered Music Therapist to work for the Windham School District in the Texas Department of Corrections, where he piloted the music therapy program with psychiatric inmates, and is currently a music therapist – board certified. He has been on the Windham School District faculty as a music education director, a special education teacher, and an adult literacy teacher from 1982 to 2011. He is Past President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Huntsville Children's Choir. He completed his B.S. in Secondary Education and Music Education at North Texas State University and received an M.A. in Music Therapy from Texas Woman's University, where he taught guitar on the music faculty from 1979 through 1980.