

Sherry Porter Durham
Adjunct Professor
Department of Curriculum & Instruction
College of Education

Degrees Earned

Ed.D in Secondary Education and Educational Leadership, Stephen F. Austin State University, 2006

M.Ed. in Educational Leadership, Mid-management, Stephen F. Austin State University, 2001

B.S. in Education, 1990, Stephen F. Austin State University, 1990

Professional Licensure and Certifications

General Education Teaching Certificate (1-8), 1990

Special Education Certification (K-12), 1994

Principal Certification, 1991

Superintendent Certification, 2001

Peer-Review Publications

Articles

- Durham, S. (2005) Book Review: The light in their eyes, In Teacher Education and Practice: Special Issue Affirming Diversity in Our Schools

Books

- Durham, S. (2006). Quien me da esperanza? Stories of influence on the educational journeys of Hispanic educators.

Chapters

- Durham, S. (2005). Standing with the souls, In A bridge to ourselves, Texas Council of Women School Executives.
- Durham, S. (2005). Unlocking the gates. In Changing mindsets of educational leaders to improve schools: voices of doctoral students. Harris, S. (Ed.). Lanham, MD. Scarecrow Education.

Proceedings

- Building a Collaborative Learning Community, Texas Council Administrators of Special Education, Austin, Texas, 2008
- Instruction in the Special Education Setting: Accountability and Teacher Responsibility, Lufkin ISD Special Programs Teachers, November, 2007
- LRE and ARD Decision Making Updates, Lufkin ISD Staff, November 2007
- 212° the extra degree from the Walk the Talk Series, Lufkin ISD Second Year Teacher Academy
- What a Ride! A Tandem Curriculum for Pre-K Students, Texas Council Administrators of Special Education, January 2007, Austin, Texas
- Successful or Significant? : Curriculum in the Special Education Classroom, Texas Council Administrators of Special Education, January 2006, Austin Texas

