Required Text: Marketing by Lamb, Hair, McDaniel 8th edition, publisher Thompson-Southwestern

Course description: This course includes marketing functions, transportation, assembling, storage, trade channels, cost, co-operative marketing, trade association, market analysis, marketing structures and agencies, types of middlemen, international marketing, and current marketing practices. The class will consist of lecture and class discussion. Students are expected to read assignments before class so that meaningful discussions in class can take place. Students are encouraged to share examples from their own experiences that relate to class material.

This course provides an introductory overview of both marketing theory and practice. Instruction is centered on the basic marketing mix elements known as the “Four P’s”: Product, Pricing, Promotion and Distribution (Place). Coverage is also given to support activities such as market research and competitive intelligence. Finally, a global perspective is promoted throughout.

Course Objectives:

- 1. The major objectives of this course are for students include gaining an understanding of the fundamental principles and concepts of marketing.
- 2. Examine the marketing environment.
- 3. Along with learning the task of the marketing manager, students should develop a basic understanding of consumer behavior.
- 4. Study the elements of the marketing mix.

Course Expectations: To maximize the learning experience, students are expected to:

- (1) Be prepared for each class by reading the assigned chapters from the text and
- (2) Participate actively in class discussions that are appropriate, and articulated so as to enrich class understanding of the topic being discussed.

Course Evaluation Process

Grading/Evaluation:

Exams

Four (4) exams will be administered. Each is worth 100 points.

Thus, the total points from exams are 400

In-class Exercises

Four (4) exercises at 25 points each: 100 points total

Exams: Four (4) exams will be administered, three exams during the semester and one (1) final exam. Exams will consist of objective questions such as multiple choice. All exams are worth 100 points each. There will be no makeup exams. Please don't miss exam day. If exam day is missed, student will take the mandatory comprehensive final or receive a zero for the exam missed.(This only includes one exam to miss, any more exams missed and student will receive a zero for each exam missed)

The total number of points could be different than given above, due to extra assignments. Any extra assignments will be discussed in class and assigned in class. Note! If you are a borderline case for a grade, you will increase the probability of getting the higher grade if you have good attendance according to instructor discretion. A borderline case is defined as one point below the grade.

Points

Exams 400 (3 exams 1 final)

In-class 100 (25 pt. Each)

TOTAL 500 possible points

(total # of pts of student \ 500 = student grade, ex. 400\500 = .80or 80%)

Grading Scale:

100%-90%	A
89%-80%	B
79%-70%	C
69%-60%	D
Below 60%	F

Attendance:

Regular attendance is expected and will be taken daily. Attendance is also used to evaluate borderline cases in determining final grades. The University allows for 3 hrs, or 2- 1

1\2 hr classes for the maximum days missed. Any additional days missed will be left to the discretion of the instructor as to when or if an additional point will be added to final grade. Students are expected to arrive at class on time, Not get up to leave in the middle of class.
