

SYLLABUS

COURSE TITLE- Photography Seminar
Summer 1 '08

COURSE NUMBER- ART 363- 01

COURSE CREDIT- 3

Associate Professor Jack Barnosky

ARTB rm 100, CAP Center

10 am-12

COURSE DESCRIPTION- In this advanced course students will select a topic involving the land and document this topic for the entire semester. Students will be expected to make this work personal and aesthetically individual. Photographic work will be done in any format.

COURSE OBJECTIVES-

Produce a series of photographs that document a particular part of the landscape limiting their efforts to a 5 mile stretch of a chosen roadway.

Produce a gallery exhibition of the finished work

COURSE OUTLINE- Students will select an area and photograph this subject throughout the entire semester. The topic will be submitted to instructor and class on the third class period. The topic selected may not be changed. We will see progress on a twice weekly basis. Students will do research on their topic on alternate days.

GRADING- There will be a minimum of 5 graded critiques. At these critiques students will show the current state of their project. Grades will be based on effort, creativity and progress within the project. Critiques equal exams. At the end of the semester there will be two critiques for showing final completed projects.

ATTENDANCE- Students are expected to attend class weekly. Missing more than two classes will result in a grade letter reduction. Attendance will be taken at each class.

SUPPLIES- Students must pay a fee to the Department secretary. This fee will be used to supply students with the needed darkroom chemicals. Students are responsible for film, film developer and paper. If the project involves non traditional supplies students must supply these.

SYLLABUS ADDENDUM

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

All students are expected to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experience both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating on an exam or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion and the abuse of resource material. (Academic Policy Statement 810213)

CLASSROOM RULES OF CONDUCT

Students will refrain from behavior in the classroom that intentionally or unintentionally disrupts the learning process and thus impedes the mission of the University. Cellular phones and pagers must be turned off before class begins. Students are prohibited from eating in class, using tobacco products, making offensive remarks, reading newspapers or any printed material. Sleeping, talking at inappropriate times, wearing inappropriate clothing, or engaging in any other form of distraction. Inappropriate behavior in the classroom shall result in a directive to leave class. Students especially disruptive may be reported to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action in accordance with University policy.

VISITORS IN THE CLASSROOM

Unannounced visitors in the classroom must present a current, official SHSU identification card to be permitted in the classroom. They must not present a disruption to the class by their attendance. If a visitor is not a registered student, it is at the instructors discretion whether or not the visitor will be allowed in the classroom.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITY ACT

Requests for accommodation must be initiated by the student. A student seeking accommodations should go to the Counseling Center and Services for Students with Disabilities in a timely manner. It is the policy of SHSU that no otherwise qualified disabled student shall, solely by reason of his/her handicap, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any Student Life program or activity. Disabled students may request assistance with academically related problems stemming from individual disabilities by contacting the Director of the Counseling Center in the Lee Drain Annex or by calling 41720

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

University Policy (APS 861001) and state law (Section 51.91 (b), Texas Education Code) require that a student who is absent from class for the observance of a religious holy day (and wherever travel is necessary) be allowed to take exams or complete assignments scheduled for that period within a reasonable time after the absence. Not later than the 15th calendar day after the first day of the semester, or the 7th calendar day after the first day of a summer session, the student must notify the instructor of each scheduled class that he/she would be absent for a religious holiday. A form (see APS 861001) must be completed by the instructor, signed by the student and approved by the department chair.