ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE, FACULTY

Appointed by:	President
Reports to:	President
Number of Members:	17
Faculty	12
Administrators	5

Purpose. Reviews written complaints from faculty members and recommends to the President of the University whether or not the facts merit continued inquiry by the committee.

Appointments. The President makes all appointments and designates the Chair. Membership is divided as follows: one administrator and two faculty members from each college and one faculty member from the library. The faculty members shall be selected from University Faculty Senate nominations. The administrators shall be selected from Academic Policy Council nominations. Additional nominations may be solicited from either body by the President. The Chair shall be selected by the President in consultation with the Chair of the University Faculty Senate and the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. Members serve indefinite terms, with replacements nominated as necessary by the appropriate bodies. Chair serves a one-year, renewable term.

Term for Chair expires August 31, 2008:
